Dedication

We, the senior class of 1964, take pride in dedicating our yearbook, THE FORTRESS, to you, Mr. May.

Throughout the years, your patience, consideration, and guidance have made an imprint on our lives. We should like to express our gratitude to you for each effort you so unselfishly put forth.

We proudly dedicate our yearbook to you and extend to you, Mr. May, our deep appreciation both as a teacher and as a friend.

In Memory of John Fitzgerald Kennedy

PLUCKED FROM OUR MIDST

Plucked from our midst this great man was,
For a reason yet unknown.
Taken away from the people he loved
And leaving his family alone.

Plucked from our midst this brave man was,
When building a nation his task.
Why? Yes, why is the question unanswered
But still we continue to ask.

Plucked from our midst this fine man was,
By a person with mind unsure.
But we cannot question the ways of God
This deed we must endure.

Plucked from our midst this great man was,
But all we have not lost.
We must keep the freedom he loved so much
To pay such a great, deep cost.

J. WILLIAM MARKER, Principal

Dear Seniors,

Upon this your final year at Fort Ashby High School, I should like to extend my sincere wishes to you as you depart and go your separate ways.

Throughout your lives, there will be goals to strive to reach. For some these goals will be successfully obtained, but for others they may appear to be difficult. It is only through your sincerity and perseverance that you can obtain the key that unlocks the door to success. One of our greatest American citizens once said, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." It is only through endless attempts that we reach the highest goals in life.

May you set high goals in life, and may you always strive to reach them.

Sincerely,

J. William Marker

ADVERTISERS

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Objectives:

- To bring into closer relation the home and school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.
- To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.
- To promote the welfare of children and youth in the home, school, church and community.
- To raise the standards of home life. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

Dear Friend,

We the Seniors of '64 wish to express our gratitude to the Patrons, Boosters, and Advertisers whose help has made it possible for the publication of our year-book, Fortress 1964. If it were not for you our annual would not exist.

Thank you,

THE 1964 FORTRESS STAFF
